_____X

The Plaintiff, by counsel, complains of the Defendants, Alejandro N. Mayorkas, Secretary, U.S. Department of Homeland Security; Ur M. Jaddou, Director, U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services; Laura B. Zuchowski, Director, USCIS Vermont Service Center, Christopher A. Wray, Director, Federal Bureau of Investigation and Merrick B. Garland, Attorney General, U.S. Department of Justice, as follows:

I. PREFATORY STATEMENT

1. This is a mandamus action to compel the Defendants and those acting under them to take all appropriate action to adjudicate the Plaintiff's Self-Petition for Abused Spouse (Form I-360) without further delay.

2. The Plaintiff (an Abused Spouse of a United States Citizen) has properly filed the I-360 Self-Petition with the Defendant U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services ("USCIS") on December 30, 2020 (EAC-21-095-50166). The said Self-Petition has been found to establish a prima facie case for classification under the self-petitioning provisions of the Violence Against Women Act on April 19, 2021. Plaintiff also has a concurrent I-485 Application for Adjustment of Status to Permanent Residence pending that may not be adjudicated without the final Approval of the final approval of the said abuse-based I-360 Self Petition. The Plaintiff's application remains within the jurisdiction of the Defendants, who have improperly withheld action on the application for an unreasonable period of time, to the detriment of the Plaintiff.

II. JURISDICTION

3. This is a civil action brought pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1361 ("The district courts shall have original jurisdiction of any action in the nature of mandamus to compel an officer or employee of the United States or any agency thereof to perform a duty owed to the plaintiff.”). Jurisdiction is further conferred by 8 U.S.C. § 1329 (jurisdiction of the district courts) and 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (federal subject matter jurisdiction).

4. Jurisdiction is also conferred pursuant to 5 U.S.C. §§ 555(b) and 702, the Administrative Procedure Act (“APA”). The APA requires USCIS to carry out its duties within a reasonable time. 5 U.S.C. § 555(b) provides that “[w]ith due regard for the convenience and necessity of the parties or their representatives and within a reasonable time, each agency shall proceed to conclude a matter presented to it.” (Emphasis added). USCIS is subject to 5 U.S.C. § 555(b). The District court has jurisdiction under the APA, in conjunction with 28 U.S.C. § 1331, to review plaintiff’s complaint for declaratory and injunctive relief against federal agency. The Administrative Procedure Act requires an agency to act within a reasonable time, 5 U.S.C. § 555(b), and authorizes a reviewing court to compel agency action, unreasonably delayed, 5 U.S.C. § 706(1).

5. Section 242 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (“INA”), 8 U.S.C. § 1252, does not deprive this Court of jurisdiction. INA § 242(a)(5) provides that “a petition for review filed with an appropriate court of appeals in accordance with this section, shall be the sole and exclusive means for judicial review of an order of removal entered or issued under any provision of this Act[.]” As the present action does not seek review of a removal order, but is simply an action to compel USCIS to adjudicate the Plaintiff's unreasonably delayed application, this Court retains original mandamus jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1361. 8 U.S.C. §1252(a)(2)(B)(ii) does not bar judicial review of the pace of application processing or the failure to take action.

6. Furthermore, INA § 242(a)(2)(B) provides that no court shall have jurisdiction to review either (i) “any judgment regarding the granting of” various forms of relief from removal, or (ii) “any other decision or action of the Attorney General or the Secretary of Homeland Security the authority for which is specified ... to be in the discretion of the Attorney General or the Secretary of Homeland Security[.]” As adjudication of a properly filed I-360 abused-based Self-Petition with the Defendant U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (“USCIS”) is neither a judgment regarding the granting of relief from removal nor a decision or action that is specified to be in the discretion of the Attorney General or the Secretary of Homeland Security, the Court retains original mandamus jurisdiction over this claim.

7. Both the regulations and the INA provide numerous examples of duties owed by USCIS in the I-360 abused-based Self-Petition process. 8 U.S.C. § 1103 provides that “[t]he Secretary of Homeland Security shall be charged with the administration and enforcement of this Act and all other laws relating to the immigration and naturalization of aliens[.]” (Emphasis added). The regulations further provide that “the applicant shall be notified of the decision of the director and, if the application is denied, the reasons for the denial.” 8 C.F.R. § 245.2(a)(5)(i) (emphasis added). The language of the statute and the above-cited regulations is mandatory, not discretionary, and the Defendants have a clear duty to adjudicate the I-360 abused-based Self-Petition pending before them.

8. As set forth below, the delay in processing the Plaintiff's said properly filed I-360 abused-based Self-Petition is unreasonable.

III. VENUE

9. Venue is proper under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(e)(3) because Plaintiff resides in this judicial district, and no real property is involved in the action. The statute provides that in an action in which a defendant is an officer or employee of the United States, the action “may . . . be brought in any judicial district in which . . . the plaintiff resides if no real property is involved in the action.” Id. There is no real property involved in this action.

IV. EXHAUSTION OF ADMINISTRATIVE REMEDIES

10. No exhaustion requirements apply to the Plaintiff's complaint for a Writ of Mandamus. The Plaintiff is owed a duty – the adjudication of his properly filed I-360 abused-based Self-Petition, which has been duly filed with USCIS. Defendants have unreasonably delayed and failed to adjudicate the Plaintiff's application for a long time. The Plaintiff has no other adequate remedy available for the harm he seeks to redress – the failure of USCIS to process his I-360 abused-based Self-Petition in a timely manner.

V. PARTIES

11. The Plaintiff, Yang Bi, resides at 301 East 50th Street, #6A, New York, NY 10022. He was born in the People's Republic of China in 1984 and is a citizen of People's Republic of China. His Alien Registration number is A208-527-640.

12. The Defendants, Alejandro N. Mayorkas, Secretary, U.S. Department of Homeland Security; Ur M. Jaddou, Director, U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services and Laura B. Zuchowski, Director, USCIS Vermont Service Center, are charged by law with the statutory and regulatory obligation to perform background security checks and determine eligibility for adjustment of status to lawful permanent resident, pursuant to INA §§ 103 and 245, 8 U.S.C. §§ 1103 and 1255, and 8 C.F.R. §§ 245.2(a)(5)(i) and 245.6. Defendant Christopher A. Wray is being sued in his official capacity as Director of the FBI, the law enforcement agency that conducts the necessary background checks required for USCIS adjudication of certain petitions seeking to adjust immigration status. Defendant Merrick B. Garland is being sued in his official capacity as United States Attorney General and, in this capacity, he is responsible for the activities of the FBI. In addition, pursuant to 8 § USC 1103, he is charged with determining all issues of law pertaining to immigration and representing the United States of America in various legal matters.

USCIS received the Plaintiff's I-360 abuse-based Self-Petition on December 30, 2020. USCIS is the agency of DHS responsible for adjudicating I-360 abuse-based Self-Petitions under the INA and has the sole authority to do so, pursuant to 8 C.F.R. § 245.2(a)(1) (requiring any alien who believes he meets the eligibility requirements of Section 245 of the Act to apply to the director having jurisdiction over his place of residence).

VI. FACTS AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

13. The Plaintiff came to the United States in 2015. He is a law-abiding individual, has been employed, has always paid his taxes, and has never been arrested, charged, or convicted of any crime.

14. Plaintiff filed his I-360 abuse-based Self-Petition, along with the concurrent I-485 Adjustment Application with USCIS on December 30, 2020. The said Self-Petition is currently pending at the USCIS Vermont Service Center.

15. Plaintiff's Self-Petition is based on abuse by his United States Citizen spouse.

16. Plaintiff has made numerous telephonic status inquiries with USCIS over the past months that his Self-Petition has been pending, and he has repeatedly been informed that his case remains un-adjudicated pending review.

17. Plaintiff is eager to obtain Lawful Permanent Resident status and the lengthy delay by the Defendants in adjudicating his Self-Petition is of great concern to him.

18. The Defendant USCIS has unreasonably failed to issue a final decision on Plaintiff's Self-Petition. As long time have elapsed since the Plaintiff filed his said application, he requests that this Court instruct USCIS to adjudicate the said Self-Petition without further delay.

VII. CAUSE OF ACTION

19. The Plaintiff is eligible for status as a Lawful Permanent Resident.

20. The Defendants have sufficient information to determine the Plaintiff's eligibility for relief pursuant to applicable requirements. Notwithstanding, the Defendant USCIS has unreasonably delayed and refused to adjudicate the Plaintiff's said Self-Petition for long time, thereby depriving the Plaintiff of his right to a decision on his immigration status and the peace of mind to which he is entitled.

21. The Plaintiff's ability to travel out of the country has also been restricted, for as long as his immigration status remains pending.

22. The Defendants' inaction in the Plaintiff's case has caused inordinate and unfair amounts of stress, expense, and hassle for the Plaintiff, who is entitled to a decision on his said Self-Petition without further unreasonable delay.

VIII. CLAIMS

23. A mandamus plaintiff must demonstrate that: (i) he or she has a clear right to the relief requested; (ii) the defendant has a clear duty to perform the act in question; and (iii) no other adequate remedy is available. Iddir v. INS, 301 F.3d 492, 499 (7th Cir. 2002); Power v. Barnhart, 292 F.3d 781, 784 (D.C. Cir. 2002); Citizens for Ethics and Responsibility in Wash. v. Cheney, 593 F. Supp. 2d 194, 219 (D.D.C. 2009); see also Liu, 509 F. Supp. 2d at 10 (holding, in mandamus suit alleging unreasonable agency delay, that ““the statutory duty involved [in such cases] ... does not specify what course of action shall be taken. Rather, regardless of what course it chooses, the agency is under a duty not to delay unreasonably in making that choice””) (quoting Sierra Club v. Thomas, 828 F.3d 783, 794 (D.C. Cir. 1987)); Aslam, 531 F. Supp. 2d at 743 (“[T]he Court concludes that CIS has a legal obligation to adjudicate his application within a reasonable period of time.”). The Plaintiff clearly meets all three of these criteria.

24. The Plaintiff has fully complied with all of the statutory and regulatory requirements for seeking relief, including submission of all necessary forms and supporting documents.

25. The Defendant USCIS has unreasonably failed to adjudicate the Plaintiff's Self-Petition for long time, thereby depriving the Plaintiff of his rights under INA § 209, 8 U.S.C. § 1159. Pursuant to 5 U.S.C. §§ 555(b) and 702 (APA), “[w]ith due regard for the convenience and necessity of the parties or their representatives and within a reasonable time, each agency shall proceed to conclude a matter presented to it.” (Emphasis added).

26. The Defendants owe the Plaintiff a duty to adjudicate his abuse-based Self-Petition, pursuant to the INA and its implementing regulations, and have unreasonably failed to perform that duty. See, e.g., Northern States Power Co. v. U.S. Dep't of Energy, 128 F.3d 754, 761 (D.C. Cir. 1997) (issuing writ of mandamus to preclude government defendant “from excusing its own delay” in complying with a clear statutory obligation). The Plaintiff has no alternative means to obtain adjudication of his abuse-based Self-Petition and his right to issuance of the writ is “clear and indisputable.” Gulfstream Aerospace Corp. v. Mayacamas Corp., 485 U.S. 271, 289 (1988); see also Power, 292 F.3d at 784; Matter of Sealed Case, 151 F.3d at 1063 (holding that mandamus is an appropriate remedy whenever a party demonstrates a clear right to have an action performed by a government official who refuses to act and that no other adequate means to attain the relief exist).

27. The Court's intervention is also appropriate because Defendants have failed to act within a reasonable period of time. The Plaintiff has already waited for long for adjudication of his pending abuse-based Self-Petition. This is an unacceptable and unreasonable delay.

28. The Plaintiff is entitled to action on his long-pending waiver application, because an unreasonable amount of time has passed since his application was filed. Defendants have failed to carry out the adjudicative and administrative functions delegated to them by law, to the ongoing harm and prejudice of the Plaintiff.

29. Defendants' delay is without justification and has forced the Plaintiff to resort to this Court for relief, and the Plaintiff is entitled to attorney's fees pursuant to the Equal Access to Justice Act ("EAJA"), 28 U.S.C. § 2412(d)(2).

IX. PRAYER

WHEREFORE, the Plaintiff prays that this Court:

1. Compel the Defendants and those acting under them to take all appropriate action to adjudicate the Plaintiff's I-360 abuse-based Self-Petition without further delay;
2. Grant attorney's fees and costs of court to the Plaintiff under the Equal Access to Justice Act ("EAJA");
3. Grant such other and further relief as this Court deems proper.

PRIMA FACIE DETERMINATION

Receipt Date: December 30, 2020

The above petition has been reviewed and found to establish a prima facie case for classification under the self-petitioning provisions of the Violence Against Women Act.

THIS NOTICE MAY BE USED TO ASSIST YOU IN RECEIVING PUBLIC BENEFITS.

THIS PRIMA FACIE DETERMINATION IS VALID FOR A PERIOD OF ONE YEAR FROM THE NOTICE DATE SHOWN ABOVE, AND EXPIRES ON THE DATE INDICATED BELOW.

We will send you a written notice as soon as we make a decision on this case. It is not expected that a final decision will be made in this case before the end of the one year period. If this period is coming to a close and a decision has not been made on your case, you will automatically receive an extension within 60 days of the ending date.

PLEASE NOTE: ESTABLISHING A PRIMA FACIE CASE FOR CLASSIFICATION UNDER THE SELF-PETITIONING PROVISIONS OF THE VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN ACT DOES NOT NECESSARILY MEAN THAT YOUR PETITION WILL BE APPROVED.

EXPIRATION DATE: April 19, 2022

THIS NOTICE DOES NOT GRANT ANY IMMIGRATION STATUS OR BENEFIT.

We have received the application or petition ("your case") listed above. This notice shows that your case was filed on the "Received Date" listed above. It does NOT grant the beneficiary any immigration status, and it is not evidence that your case is still pending. We will notify you in writing when we make a decision on your case or if we need additional information.

Please save this and any other notices about your case for your records. You should also keep copies of anything you send us, as well as proof of delivery. Have these records available if you contact us about your case.

T/U Filings - If you were still in valid U or T nonimmigrant status on the date your Application to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status (Form I-485) was received, that status is extended until a decision is reached on your Form I-485. If your status was no longer valid by the date your Form I-485 was received, you will need to file the Application to Extend/Change Nonimmigrant Status (Form I-539) with this office to request an extension of your nonimmigrant status.

Affidavit of Support - If a Form I-864, Affidavit of Support, is required for your filing, please understand that it is a contract between your sponsor and the government of the United States. This means that your sponsor is telling the government that he/she is willing and able to financially support you if needed. It may also make you ineligible for certain Federal, state, or local means-tested benefits, because he/she has indicated that they will support you. If you do receive any means-tested benefits, section 213A(b) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) states that the benefits-granting entity shall request reimbursement from your sponsor.

EMPLOYMENT AUTHORIZATION:

You are authorized to work in the United States while your Application to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status (Form I-485) is pending. You may apply for work authorization by submitting an Application for Employment Authorization (Form I-765), pursuant to Title 8 Code of Federal Regulations (8 CFR), section 274a.12(c)(9), to this office. If you have already filed this application, the decision on your application will be sent under separate cover.

DEPARTING FROM THE UNITED STATES:

If you plan to depart the United States, you must obtain permission to return to the United States by requesting advance parole before you leave. If you do not obtain advance parole before your departure, you will be considered to have abandoned your application for adjustment of status and the application will be denied. Please see 8 CFR section 245.23(j), for T adjustment of status applications, and section 245.24(j), for U adjustment of status applications. In addition, you may be unable to re-enter the United States, or you may be placed in removal proceedings before an Immigration Judge. You may apply for advance parole by submitting an Application for Travel Document (Form I-131) to this office. If you have already filed this application, the decision on your application will be sent under separate cover.

If any of the information in your notice is incorrect or you have any questions about your case, you can connect with the USCIS Contact Center at www.uscis.gov/contactcenter or ask about your case online at www.uscis.gov/e-request. You will need your Alien Registration Number (A-Number) and/or the receipt number shown above.

You can receive updates on your case by visiting www.uscis.gov/casestatus to get the latest status or you can create an account at my.uscis.gov/account and receive email updates for your case.

Processing time - Processing times vary by form type.

- Visit www.uscis.gov/processingtimes to see the current processing times by form type and field office or service center.

USCIS and the U.S. Department of Homeland Security reserve the right to verify this information before and/or after making a decision on your case so we can ensure that you have complied with applicable laws, rules, regulations, and other legal authorities. We may review public information and records, contact others by mail, the internet or phone, conduct site inspections of businesses and residences, or use other methods of verification. We will use the information obtained to determine whether you are eligible for the benefit you seek. If we find any derogatory information, we will provide you and the legal representative listed on your Form G-28 an opportunity to address that information before we make a formal decision on your case or start proceedings.

Please see the additional information on the back. You will be notified separately about any other cases you filed.
